PRINCIPAL

Miss Hargrove Inspires Us Toward Excellence

Behind every successful enterprise there is a dedicated, enthusiastic, and ingenious promoter. Our principal, Miss Clara Nell Hargrove, is such a person. She has moved Miller forward by maintaining a capable faculty and by obtaining the most modern teaching equipment. Setting an example of high integrity and a goal of academic excellence, our principal has created an atmosphere conducive to meaningful learning.

The Miller Annual Staff congratulates Miss Hargrove on her many achievements.

Varsity Football

The Poet football team, while not winning the State Championship, certainly proved to be exceptional in spirit, ability, and sportsmanship. This team will long be remembered as the team that overcame the seven year jinx of Willingham.

The team was paced throughout the season by strong play from several sophomores and juniors.

Even though the Poets finished with a 5—5 region 1-AAA record, every team who went up against Lanier came out knowing they had played a truly great, hard-hitting team that would never give up.

Lanier Sugar Bear Band

After a rigorous week of work in North Georgia's Camp Wasega, this year's "Sugarbears" returned to Macon and presented an outstanding season of half-time shows ranging from Tiajuana Brass to Batman. About mid-season the marching band appeared in their new British style uniforms. At Homecoming the Lanier and Mark Smith Bands performed in a joint half-time show saluting the United Nations and furnishing background music for the crowning of the Homeoming Queen.

Football season was only the beginning of the band's activities. A trip to the University of Georgia's Band Day, a Christmas Concert with the Mabel White Baptist Choir, the State Music Festival, a spring concert, and a concert tour through South Georgia cities highlighted the year's many events.

The funds necessary to conduct these activities were raised by the band members, majorettes, and flag girls during numerous candy and cake sales. The enthusiasm shown by the band wherever it performed, whether at a pep rally or a concert, best exemplified the true "Sugarbear" spirit.

Basketball

Possibly the most balanced team that Lanier has ever produced faced the toughest region 1-AAA competition ever. This year's squad, under the guidance of Coach Henry Middlebrooks, always exerted pressure when pressure was needed and presented a most exciting season. After an excellent record of 22-5, the Poets journeyed to the region tournament with hopes of playing in the state tournament in Albany. Every team that faced the Poet Five knew that they had played a team with spirit plus. With eight players returning, next year's expectations are truly high.

Swimming

Swimming is a team sport, but each member of the team remains a distinct and important individual. At the critical moment the swimmer cannot count on luck or the wisdom of a coach or the strength of a teammate to sustain him. However good his team may be, in every race and on every relay leg, the individual competitor must settle the issue solely on the basis of his own merits. As he matches his rivals stroke for stroke and as he tumbles in the silver fury of a turn, he can count only on his own wits and strength and determination.

Baseball

With an outstanding crop of B-team and ninth grade players, prospects for the 1966-67 season are very encouraging. Good hitting and improved fielding are expected to enable the team to defeat strong competition. Experience and depth will be supplied by returning players Benny Mayo, Dennis Davis, Brannon Bonifay, Bruce Bryant, and Jimmy Allen.

HOMECOMING

'66

THE 1965 HOMECOMING QUEEN, Miss Candy Champion, crowns the 1966 Queen, Miss Monnie Agnew.

A tense week began with the selection of ten lovely candidates for Homecoming Queen. On two occasions these candidates were introduced to the Lanier student body. Anticipation and suspense made the day of the big game with Mark Smith pass slowly for these few, but finally night fell and the long-awaited half-time arrived. On the basis of her poise, personality, and charm, Miss Monnie Agnew was honored with the title of Homecoming Queen for 1966-67. Her court consisted of Miss Mary McGaughey, Miss Shirley Coleman, and Miss Carolyn Clancy. The other candidates included Miss Eugenia Griffith, Miss Karen Lewis, Miss Gail Smith, Miss Angie Rowe, Miss Lynn Joiner, and Miss Shirley Harrison.

Miss Carolyn Clancy

MONNIE AGNEW—Most notable for her endeavors to promote solidarity among the students. An intuitive leader and capable diplomat.

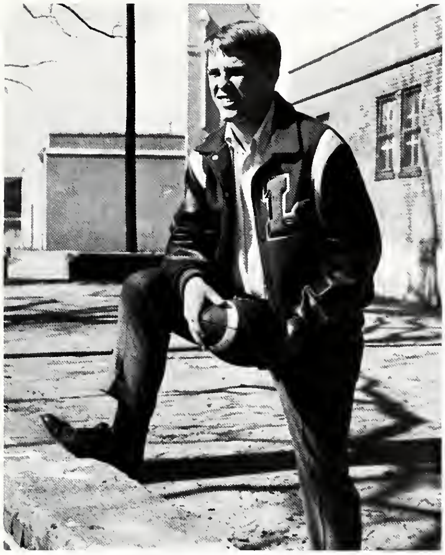
BOB ANDERSON—A cheerful, pleasant disposition is Bob Anderson's most outstanding characteristic. This friendliness coupled with his excellence in military, scholastics, and sports caused him to rank as a Lanier superlative.

BRANNON BONIFAY—Modest and unpretentious, Brannon Bonifay won the devotion of his classmates as a loyal Lanierian who was a standout not only in athletics, but in the classroom, and as a Christian gentleman in the most literal sense.

CAROLYN CLANCY—Her spriteliness and refreshing good looks coupled with a disarming naivete make her a favorite with everyone. The paragon of femininity.

SHIRLEY COLEMAN—An effervescent good humor, unpredictable wit, and indomitable spirit make her not only an appealing but also an amusing young lady.

STEVE CARREKER—Outstanding qualities of leadership, academic excellence, a dynamic personality and an uncompromising dedication to Christian ideals earned for Steve Carreker the respect and esteem of his associates.



CARL ELLINGTON—The epitome of spirit and capability, Carl Ellington has proved to be an outstanding athlete and scholar. His sense of responsibility and amiable manner were prime factors in his being elected a superlative.

LYNN JOINER—A girl in whom may be found the poise, manner, and modesty of a lady combined with the determination and drive of an entrepreneur.

KAREN LEWIS—Truly an idealist, yet imbued with a romantic quality. A zealous worker possessed of illimitable energy and enthusiasm.

JERRY GOLDBAUGH—Relaxed, likable, moving at an easy pace in school, Jerry Goldbaugh became dynamite on the basketball court. His deceptively easy-going manner masked strong drive and purpose which resulted in both athletic and academic success.

JOHN REEVES—John Reeves used his exceptional abilities to the fullest in serving Lanier. His keen mind and quiet good humor brought him positions of leadership in all phases of school life.

MARY McGAUGHEY—A vivacious charmer, with a zest for life which enlivens all around her. Vitality incarnate.

TRICIA McKIBBEN—The vital spark of the Senior Class. Her altruistic nature and delightful ingenuity earn her the devotion and respect of all.

CHARLES A. STILLWELL—C. A. Stillwell's varied interests, intellectual achievements, and quiet confidence mark him as athlete, outstanding student, and leader. His conduct and accomplishments have earned for him well-deserved recognition at Lanier.

ANDY WATSON—His compassion and mature understanding, together with refreshing frankness, dependability, and good sense, made Andy Watson a favorite as a friend and leader.

CAROL PATTERSON—Known for her candor and guileless approach to every problem, she is a scrupulous organizer and objective analyst.

Students Gain Honors for Varied Achievements

This year, Miller's Best Citizen is Monnie Agnew. This contest is sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution. The girl selected should have the following qualities: patriotism, dependability, leadership, personality, civic responsibility, consideration of others, and interest in family, school, community, and nation.

Star Students are chosen from every high school in the state on the basis of the December College Boards and academic record. Only one out of this group is selected to represent the entire state. Congratulations and good luck to our Star Students, Brena Gibson and Horace McSwain.

An unusual and outstanding honor is to be selected to participate in the Senate Youth Program in Washington, D.C. Mary Kathryn Zachary was one of two students from Georgia who had this opportunity. She won an exciting week-long trip to Washington.

Seven students from Miller and Lanier participated in the Governor's Honors Program, a stimulating program held at Wesleyan College each summer for 400 of Georgia's high school students.

Student Council Seeks Pathways to Prosperity

Miller's Student Council works with the teachers and clubs to promote the general welfare of the school and community and to facilitate good student-teacher relationships. The Student Council takes suggestions from the students and keeps them informed through representatives in each supervision. Some highlights of an activity-filled year are the Thanksgiving and Christmas projects, Honor Week, Spirit Week, a trip to Rich's, and the sale of address books. Millerites benefit greatly from the work of Student Council.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Teaching As A Career Interests Millerites

The multifold purpose of Miller's FTA is to learn of the various opportunities of the teaching profession, to cultivate the qualities essential to the character of a good teacher, and to foster the development of student leadership.

FTA MEMBERS

OFFICERS: Linda Smith, President; Mary Calhoun, Secretary; Barbara Parker, Vice-President; Jean Overman, Program Chairman; Cathe Parker, Chaplain; Kathy Steele, Historian.

RADIO ANNOUNCERS CLUB

Radio Programs Capture Miller-Lanier Audiences

Keeping the student body aware of important announcements is part of the job of the Miller-Lanier Radio Announcers. Their program every Tuesday night on WBML blends popular songs with news that is vital to both schools and faculties.

RADIO ANNOUNCERS: Mary Walker, President; Quinn Hudson; Doug Lynch, Leralene Spillers.

RADIO ANNOUNCERS: Marcie Swint; Lester Dumas, Secretary-Treasurer; Barbara Parker; Jeff Wood.

KNITTING CLUB

Everyone Participates During Knitting Club

By learning to knit, the members of Knitting Club acquire an enjoyable and profitable skill. After learning the basic stitches, the girls use their skills on simple projects such as bedroom shoes and later make sweaters or afghans.

OFFICERS: Iris Logan, President; Mrs. Sessions, advisor; Barbara Wesson, Secretary-Treasurer; Carol Williams, Assistant Instructor; Eudene Brown, Vice-President.

Gym Activities Create Good Sportsmanship

Gym activities this year seemed to include almost everything from sponsoring the team which won the city volleyball championship to crazy-foaming the gym office. We could never forget the expression on Miss Kellum's face as she looked at her foamy white desk . . . or the distinguished faculty volleyball team losing a tough battle (played mostly from the floor) to the spirited Junior champions who could not forget that last year, when they were sophomores, the faculty beat them. Also never to be forgotten were the screams of joy which engulfed Lasseter's gym after Miller won the volleyball trophy. Gym activities added variety and fun to a year of hard work.

CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS
SUPERVISION VOLLEYBALL	Sr. Sup. 8
CLASS VOLLEYBALL	Juniors
CLASS BASKETBALL	Juniors
CLASS SOCCER	Juniors

Mrs. DuPree and Tricia give an enthusiastic yell to cheer DuPree's Darlin's (Sup. 8) to victory.

Celestine Jones and Sherry Johnson watch as Kaler Lovett struggles to volley the ball back to Sup. 6.

Patti Kelly makes a valiant attempt to beat Sup. 8, but to no avail.

As Karen Williamson demonstrates rare form with her foul shot, B-low gives her a friendly sneer.

"Get that ball and go!" is Little Jone's motto as she races down the court in the class championship game.

"Watch that crazy-foam, Debby," laughs Karen Caldwell. "It's potent gunk. The ball might disintegrate."

Miss Orr keeps a careful eye on the ball just like she keeps a careful eye on the office.

Monitors Render Their Services to Miller

Calling classes to lunch, running errands for Miss Orr, and helping in the gym and guidance offices are only part of the services performed by the various monitors at Miller. These girls save time and work for the office personnel.

GYM MONITORS: Susan Best, Karen Caldwell, Merry Bolton, Gayle Brown, Jan Baker, Sheryl Farr.

LUNCHROOM MONITORS: Pattie Rape, Judy Lee, Gerry Slocumb, Paula Thibadeau.

OFFICE MONITORS: Carolyn Clancy, Lynn Joiner, Carol Pierson, Sharon O'Neal, Penny Birchenall, Connie Murdoch, Linda LaMountt, Gail Smith, Pat Fullmore, Sally Bullington, Pam Williams, Gail Sanders, Patty Canipe, Carol Patterson.

Excitement ran high as Miller and Lanier seniors enjoyed their first joint pep rally.

Flower makes his presence smelt.

Every Friday Seniors picnic on the front lawn.

Dawn . . . Sunrise . . .

Beginnings . . .

Groping for maturity—
Amid restraints . . .
Encountering new experiences . . .
Looking forward with optimism,
Yet uncertainty . . .
Seeking acceptance . . .
Searching for identity . . .
All these mark a beginning—
Youth, conscious
Of the world around them.

Three years at Miller and Lanier . . .
A time of expansion . . .
A time of development . . .
The search for ideas . . .
The formation of concepts . . .
The strengthening of convictions . . .
A time that brings
The agony of perseverance . . .
The pain of defeat . . .
The exultation of triumph . . .
The sunshine of laughter . . .
The deepening of friendship . . .
The awakening of love . . .

GRADUATION . . .

An end, yet a beginning . . .
A time of retrospection . . .
A time of anticipation . . .
A hesitation . . .
The end of many problems,
But the beginning of new endeavors,
New experiences, new aspirations . . .
The end of some relationships,
But the beginning of new acquaintances,
New friendships, new loves . . .
As we look back,
Tiny instants in time
Become the remembered reality
Of those high-school days . . .
Vivid flashbacks of joy,
Of excitement, of anxiety,
Of despair, of hope . . .

TRULY . . .

It was the best of times . . .
It was the worst of times . . .
It was the age of wisdom . . .
It was the age of foolishness . . .
It was the spring of hope . . .
It was the winter of despair . . .
It was a time of Miller and Lanier . . .
A time now passed . . .
A time of youth . . .
But youth must mature . . .
We must look forward . . .
For . . .

To a good friend

Don L. Allison

Dear Rae,

You have made this year one of the happiest I have known. a time of athletics we really have had a lot of fun together: Remember when we went horseback riding? You were real cool; not many people try riding sidesaddle their first time out! Distressing times

Speaking of riding, I know you'll never forget the time I tried to put your car in fourth with the clutch out! Whoopy! Ooo! Don't forget those dances. Ah! fond memories up and over and light. Oops! didn't need that fender and that windshield and that SMACK! Hard times. Hey! Mona! What are you doing with your head sticking out the front window like that?!! Some people just have "Ⓡ Ⓙ Ⓗ" hard heads. A time I guess!

I was greatly delighted when you asked me to be your sponsor. Parade, the Military Ball and Competitive and light blue and white Night, A time of Military Activities "Ⓡ Ⓔ Ⓟ" "The Sponsor's Day" have all contributed to one of the best years of my life. A time of delightful pleasures will always bring back the fondest of memories. (the dam thing, not to mention the picnic) is certainly one of the most meaningful moments the afternoon at the picnic in the middle of Commissioners' Creek. A real splash!

You were seventeen when I met you, now your eighteen, and ready to take that next big step into the future. I'm going to miss you, looking ahead clearly when you go to college along with Elmore, Eeyore, and Bruiser. With a cheering section you'll have to stay in the best of spirits. With your quiet determination and exuberant energy you will succeed at anything you have a desire to accomplish. Be yourself, and live up to your own abilities and you will come out on top.

Love always,
Mona
